

National Science Day Program

28 February, Lucknow: A state level discussion was organised in Lucknow on 28 February. Dr Sarjeet Sensarma, Member of State Advisory Body of BSS and Professor in Geology, Lucknow University, was the main speaker. In his speech he elaborated and explained at length what Scientific Outlook is and its Importance in the social context. Speaking to the participants, particularly young students & children, he emphasised that they should develop the habit of preparing and asking at least five questions every day, concerning the daily life routine. Mr Jai Prakash Maurya, member of All India Executive Body, in his short speech, spoke on the importance of building a Science Organisation dedicated to the advancement of society. At the end of the programme, participants numbering more than 25 took pledge to defend Scientific Temper.

28 February, Kanpur: On 28 February, a seminar was organised at Harcourt Butler Technological Institute (HBTI), Kanpur. Prof Brajesh Singh Katiyar of HBTI and Mr Dinesh Mohanta, Member, National Executive, BSS spoke. Mr Mohanta discussed on the topic 'Science in Ancient India'.

28 February, Allahabad: On the occasion of National Science Day, a discussion was organised on 'Science in Ancient India' at George town in Allahabad, UP on 29 February. Mr. Dinesh Mohanta conducted the discussion.

Prof Brajesh Singh Katiyar addressing the seminar (left), part of the audience (right)

Mr Dinesh Mohanta conducting the discussion at Allahabad